Local Happenings

The bird law having expired, pot hunters have been busy with gun and dog. Birds are reported as plentiful.

The ladies of the Methodist church will have an apron sale in Thompson's store on Dec 14th. Your patronage will be appreciated.

If the price of print paper continues to climb, you may look out for the subscription prices of all newspapers to advance with the first of the year.

There will be a Children's Day for home missions at Fairview church, Sunday, Nov 24, from 10 till 4 o'clock. Every body invited to come and bring dinner.

The C W B M will have their annual doll sale at the Stormes room on Danville street, Dec 13 and 14. They will have a fine display of dolls, and will also serve refreshments.

Held without Bail.

Frank Chaptman, who killed Joe Rice, at Uedgerville, some weeks ago, was held without bail, after examining trial at Danville Saturday. The defendant offered no proof.

Thanksgiving Exchange.

The ladies of the C W B M will have an exchange in the Stormes room, on Danville street, on the day before Thanksgiving. Everything good to eat will be for sale at very reasonable prices.

Foot Ball.

The Lancaster "second team" will play a game of football against a Richmond team on Graded School grounds Saturday afternoon. A good game is promised. Game called at 3 o'clock.

Thanksgiving Services.

The Thanksgiving services will be held in the Presbyterian church, and Eld F M Tindler will preach the sermon. This change has been made since The Record's announcement last week.

Mr Conn Improving.

Virgil Conn, who was so seriously injured in a recent game of foot ball, is improving. He came near losing his life by the accident, his head being badly mashed in the collision with another player.

To Correspondents.

In order that all hands may enjoy a day's rest Thanksgiving, The Record will be printed and mailed next Wednesday afternoon. We will be greatly obliged if correspondents will send in their communications not later than Monday.

Good Entertainment Coming.

The Ariel Quartette, of Chicago, will appear at the Methodist church tomorrow (Friday) night, 22nd. They are accompanied by Prof Combs, a reader of great reputation. The entertainment is a splendid one, and the people should attend. Admission 25c, children 15c. Remember the date.

Certain ladies intending to organize a Literary or Study Club, take this method of notifying those who are interested. The first meeting will be held at the home of Mrs J C Hemphill Friday Dec 6 at 2:30 P M. Any person who wishes to join the Club is requested to be present or send in her name that afternoon.

Kennedy Gets Life Sentence.

Jas H Kennedy had his second trial at Stanford on charge of killing Mill Estes at Crab Orchard. The jury fixed punishment at confinement in penitentiary for life. This is the second life sentence given Kennedy, the court of appeals having granted a new trial. We understand the case will be again taken to the court of appeals.

In Flourishing Condition.

Mr W G Kemper, cashier of the Peoples Bank, at Paint Lick, was in town yesterday and placed a good order with us for printed matter. He tells us that notwithstanding the money panic, his bank has more cash in the safe than usual, and that they are doing more business than usual at this time of the year. This bank has had a wonderful growth, brought about by careful management and polite and efficient treatment to the public.

"Root" For Your Town.

If you have made up your mind to live in a town, then stand up for it, and if you know positively no good, then silence is golden, says an exchange. Do all you can to help along every man who is engaged in legitimate business. Do not send away for everything nice you want and still expect the home men to keep a stock to suit the whim of one or two customers. The success of your fellow townsmen will be your success. No man liveth to himself and no man does business independently of his fellow business men. Take your home paper. Do not imagine the big dailies fill up all this space. There are many little messages of good cheer, social sunshine, personal mention, in the home paper that the big dailies do not print. Do not abuse your neighbor. The main difference in the number of his faults and your own is that you see through a magnifying glass as a critic. The ill omended, the croaker, can do a town more harm in a minute than two good citizens can repair in a month.

Card of Thanks.

We take this method of thanking the friends and neighbors, who were so kind to us during our recent bereavement. May the Lord bless them in the prayer of

Geo Spoonamore and wife.

Gillispie Will Case.

The Gillispie will case has been on trial before Judge A D Ford all of this week. A great many witnesses have been examined, the question of the capability of Mr Gillispie to make a will being the point at issue. The following attorneys are for the will: Hon Jerry Sullivan, Jas I Hamilton, Lewis L Walker, R H Tomlinson, P M McRoberts. Attorneys against the will are Joe E Robinson, W I Williams, J Tevis Cobb and Robt Hardin.

To Close Thanksgiving.

Several leading merchants have expressed the opinion that it will be wise to close their stores all day Thanksgiving. Of course there will be nothing doing in a business way, and why merchants should to keep open and make their clerks stay cooped up all day is incomprehensible. Close your store, let your clerks have a chance to get a breath of fresh air and you'll find you have not only done them a favor but given a short rest that will put them in better shape to wait upon the Christmas trade.

The Turkey Market.

Paris Kentuckian:—The turkey market is not as rushing as compared to last year when the tootsome fowls were commanding 13 cents per pound for live weight and 18 to 20 cents per pound dressed.

Chas S Brent & Bro., of this city, the largest shippers of dressed turkeys in Kentucky, are paying 11 cents per pound for turkeys delivered at their slaughtering pens in Paris, Millersburg, Carlisle and Flemingsburg and will ship today by fast freight to Boston, Mass., one car each from the above mentioned points. The next shipment will be made next Wednesday by express, no live fowls being received for the Thanksgiving market after that date. Farmers throughout the turkey producing district of Central Kentucky are in no eagerness to sell at the prices offered and many flocks are being held for the Christmas market.

Sane, Safe and Solid.

The "patriotic press" is being given deserved credit for preventing a financial panic in this country, says the Harrodsburg Democrat. The newspapers have certainly behaved well in the face of temptations to be sensational. The real wealth of the country has not been reduced by any stock slumps. The farmers have their crops to sell, and good prices are being realized for all our cereals and foodstuffs. The manufacturer has his markets, the employer continues to produce, the employe gets his good wages and main tains his high standard of living. The exchange of commodities and services goes on and will go on at the full rate of the last few years of prosperity, for all the real conditions for the continuance of such prosperity are still with us. Thus there is no reason why any man of sense should lose confidence in the future of our industries and our commerce. And only the loss of confidence could cause a setback to our normal business activities. If the people will take care of the "psychological factor," in the light of the figures and facts that speak for themselves, the other factors will take abundant care of the prosperity we have enjoyed—a prosperity based on honest toil, on rich harvests, on an unprecedented demand for products of soil and factory. "Level heads" are all that is necessary to prevent the stock gamblers from upsetting our affairs, and they seem to be eminently possessed by the people of these great and prosperous United States.

FINAL NOTICE.

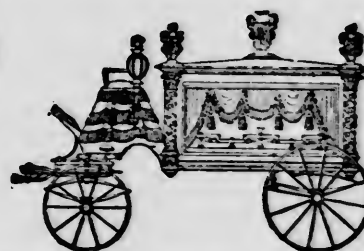

This office has mailed statements to all subscribers who owe us. Unless satisfactory replies are received by Dec 1, we will discontinue the papers and sell the accounts to a local attorney who has made us a good offer for them. While it goes against the grain to do this, yet we are forced to realize the money on the accounts. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

Trical Catarrh treatments are being mailed out free, on request, by Dr Shoop, Racine, Wis. These tests are proving to the people—without a penny's cost—the great value of this scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by R E McRoberts.

The lives of some of its friends hurt religion more than the logic of its foes.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal itching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub, which the doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr Shoop's. Take no other. R E McRoberts.

You never will have the privilege of sympathy without the price of suffering.

PHYSICIANS CURE SKIN WITH SIMPLE REMEDY.

Noted Eczema Specialist Comments on a Proven Specific for skin Diseases.

Physicians everywhere continue their praise for ordinary oil of winter green in a wonderful specific for Eczema and other itching skin diseases. This liquid, pure and clean as water, externally applied has instant effect. A few drops on the burning, itching sore causes instant relief, and a short continued use gives a complete cure.

Dr C B Holmes of Silver City, Miss, is so enthusiastic about this remedy—D. D. D Prescription—that he declares in a letter to the D D D Company of Chicago that this great remedy is as near a specific for Eczema as is quinine for malaria. "I have been using your D D D for four years with gratifying results," writes Dr Holmes.

There are thousands of other physicians who use D D D Prescription, the oil of wintergreen specific. D D D cures and it is so clean to use. If we did not know what D D D will do we would not recommend it to our friends and patrons.

THE OUTLOOK.

The subjects that just now is most engaging public attention is of course the financial Flurry.

We say "Flurry" advisedly for we believe that it is such and nothing more, and that it is as certain to pass away as it was to come. Business everywhere was being conducted under high pressure and something had to snap. The mending machinery has been put to work however, and a steady stream of gold and currency is filling the vaults of banks all over the country.

This must speedily result in the restoration of public confidence, as basis conditions are as sound as ever—the crops have been harvested, mines are in full operation and there is scarcely a mill that is not behind in its orders.

There will of necessity be a temporary restriction of trade, but we have unbounded faith that business will soon again reach its customary level. The East is already showing a return to normal, the West is closely following. It is well enough to be conservative but above all be optimistic. Let cheerfulness and optimism be the dominant notes. They are at once businesslike and patriotic.

The business quitter, the croaker and the kicker, like the balky horse in the team always gets the lash and lots of it.

Every good business man and farmer should get all the money he can, deposit it at once with his choice of banks, check out and pay his debts just as usual in the regular routine of business and all will end well. Yours truly,

We will have an Extra Line of Nice FURS From our New York House on Display Nov 29,30

Too Partisan to Holler.

Col W P Thorne, the present Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky, is one of the best campaigners and story tellers to be found in Kentucky, says Judge.

One of the best told in the last campaign runs as follows: "It was just after W O Bradley was elected Governor of Kentucky, and the Republicans in my county were holding a big ratification meeting. Brass bands, all kinds of floats and banners and hundreds of men and women and boys had been parading the streets. A young girl claimed that, which standing on her front porch, while was almost covered by vines, and foliage of different kinds, she was repeatedly hugged and kissed by a young man whom she hardly knew. A warrant was sworn out for her assailant. He was arrested and it was my duty as Commonwealth Attorney to prosecute him. John Carroll, who is at present a Judge of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, had been employed to defend him. I soon finished my examination of the witness, and turned her over to Carroll for cross examination.

"What night was this?" thundered Carroll.

"Thursday night," answered the witness.

"Thursday night, you say? What time of night?"

"About 8 o'clock."

"That was about the time the parade was passing your house."

"Yes, sir; the parade was just passing my house."

"Streets full of people?"

"Did you ever cry out or scream?"

"No, sir I did not."

"Will you please tell this jury, asked Carroll with rising voice, with the streets thronged with people and this man hugging and kissing you against your will, as you claim, why you never uttered a single cry for help or assistance?"

"Yes, sir. I will tell the jury, and everybody else, that you'll never catch me hollerin' at no Republican getherin'."

SEEDLESS TOMATOES.

New Jersey Experiment Station Seeking to Produce Such Variety.

We have but begun to appreciate what may be accomplished by crossing plants, selecting the best of the results and heavily feeding plants with all kinds of plant food. At the New Jersey station, the horticulturist has been trying to develop seedless tomatoes by crossing, and he has practically succeeded. Ordinarily a tomato contains hundreds of seeds, but the ones being produced at the station mentioned contain few seeds, and some of them are seedless. One variety has been named the Giant on account of the very large size the plant attains. It was produced by crossing the Golden Sunrise upon Dwarf Champion, and selecting the best for a number of years. Attempts to cross this variety with others have failed.

At the Wisconsin station Prof. Sandsten has been trying to reach the same end by feeding the plants a very large quantity of plant food. Most of his trials were carried on in the greenhouse, where he fertilized at the rate of 800 pounds of nitrate of soda, 600 pounds of sulphate of potash and 1,000 pounds of desiccated bone per acre. He found that he was able to get tomatoes with a smaller number of seeds than usual, and in some cases the plants produced fruit having absolutely no seeds. These had to be propagated by cuttings, but when they were grown outside of the greenhouse they produced larger fruit than inside the greenhouse.

Much is to be expected from this kind of work, which if it continues will flood the world with new varieties of plants, says Farmers' Review. The tomato is a good plant on which to operate, as it is easily propagated by means of cuttings. Its rapid growth and great fruitfulness make it possible to early determine results. There are quicker results obtained because the tomato as we now have it is an artificial product and so lends itself very easily to variations. But what can be accomplished in a lesser degree on plants less subject to variation. In the production of the seedless tomato, the great truths are being elucidated and demonstrated.

CHEAP BARREL CRATE.

How a Shipper Makes Two Out of One Barrel.

A correspondent of the Chicago Inter-Ocean furnished that publication with a sketch of a novel potato crate, which he has found to be very satisfactory for storing potatoes. This potato grower uses ventilated barrels, which he is able to construct at a cost of about 15 cents each. He buys sugar barrels, being careful to secure both heads. The barrel is knocked down and then built up again and nailed in the manner shown in illustration.

The top is used for the bottom of one barrel and the top of the same barrel is used for the bottom of another. In this way he makes two barrels out of one. The open space furnishes necessary ventilation and insures the good keeping qualities of potatoes stored.

POINTS FOR FRUIT GROWERS.

Good fruit always sells well. Keep the stock out of the orchard. Every orchard in the United States is infected to some particular fruit.

Small fruit should be found in considerable quantities on every farm. Be smart. Buy your apple barrels before the cry of a shortage begins. Great as is the fruit-growing industry of today it is yet but in its infancy.

All cultivation in the orchard should cease the first or middle of this month.

The best cover crop for orchards in Maine tests has been rye. It prevents the washing of cultivated hillsides in winter and early spring.

Buds inserted last month should be watched; do not allow the ties to choke the trees. Budding may still be done.—Farm Journal.

Keep an eye open for tent caterpillars. When found, wrap a rag around the end of a long stick, saturate the rag with kerosene, ignite the torch, and then quickly burn out the pests.

Value of Ornamental Trees.
Few farmers realize the value of ornamental trees to the farm. This is one of the first things that should be looked after when a man comes into possession of a farm. He should have a competent landscape artist make him plans for the effective placing of ornamental trees, where they will not interfere with farm work nor shade too much the buildings of the farm. These trees will be growing into money from year to year. If the time comes that the owner wishes to sell the farm, he will find it far easier to do so if it is beautiful with trees.

Stop That Cold

To check early colds or Grippe with "Preventics" means sure relief for Pneumonia. To stop a cold with Preventics is safer than to let it run and be obliged to cure it afterwards. To be sure, Preventics will cure even a deeply seated cold, but taken early—at the sneeze stage—they break, or head of these early colds. That's surely better. That's why they are called Preventics. Preventics are little Candy Cold Cures. No Quinine, no physic, nothing sickening. Nice for the children—and thoroughly safe too. If you feel chilly, if you sneeze, if you ache all over, think of Preventics. Promptness may also save half your usual sickness. And don't forget your child. If there is feverishness, night or day, Horden probably has the Preventics' greatest efficiency. Sold in 25 boxes for the pocket, also in 250 boxes of $8 Preventics. HYOMEI CURES CATARRH

Its Healing Balsams Kill All Catarrhal Germs—Sold Under Guarantee.

There is no more common disease than catarrh, and none that is more dangerous. It weakens and debilitates the whole system, if it is allowed to run, take to catarrhs, and sometimes fatal complications.

It is a note-worthy fact that among the many medicines and treatments for catarrh, there is only one which is sold under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. —Hyomei, Nature's remedy for the cure of catarrh.

No dangerous drugs are taken into the stomach when Hyomei is used. Breathed through the small pocket inhaler that comes with every Hyomei outfit, its healing balsams penetrate to the most remote cells of the throat, nose, and lungs, killing the germs of catarrh, healing the irritated mucous membrane, and making complete and lasting cures.

The complete Hyomei outfit, consisting of an inhaler that can be carried in the purse or vest pocket, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomei, costs only $1. The inhaler will last a lifetime, while extra bottles of Hyomei can be procured, whenever needed, for only 50 cents.

We are selling a good many Hyomei outfits at this season, and we have so much confidence in the remedy that we guarantee to refund the money in case it does not cure.

Ulcer of the Stomach

Insidious Nature of the Disease—How to Recognize and Cure It.

Ulcer of the stomach may exist for years without very marked symptoms, excepting those caused by indigestion. It is due to an inflammation which affects the membrane of the stomach so that it is eaten away by the gastric juices.

In good health, the stomach resists the action of the gastric juices, but when weakened, the membrane is badly nourished and the digestive fluids act upon it as well as upon the food, keeping it until perforation of the stomach occurs. In advanced cases of ulcer of the stomach there is much discomfort after eating, with a constant gnawing sensation between meals, pain from the pit of the stomach back to the shoulder blade.

At the first symptoms of indigestion, treatment should at once be started with Mi-o-na. This is a scientific remedy adapted specifically to one purpose, the cure of stomach troubles. It is so uniformly successful that a signed guarantee is given with every 50 cent box that the money will be refunded if it does not cure.

Mi-o-na is not a patent or secret remedy, but is a combination of the purest and most reliable of remedies for strengthening the digestive organs and building up the whole system. Use it for a few days and there is no reason why you should not be able to eat any food you like at any time without fear of distress.
